Reasons for rejecting the scrapped pilots

Disney Channel

Runaway Planet

- Runaway Planet was part of Ben Balistreri’s (Creator of said pilot) overall development deal at Disney Television Animation; the deal came to an end due (to) pandemic cuts at Disney TVA on 2021.- (News, 2023)

Disney XD

Very Important House

- Reasons for rejection- It is unclear as to why the pilot was scrapped but Vasquez has stated in a (deleted) blog post that it "no longer seems to gel with the direction of programming going on around [Disney XD]." (jhonenv:, n.d.)

Additional notes- After it wasn't picked up, it became sealed away by Disney, Jhonen claims that in order to get ownership of the pilot back, he'd have to fork over $500,000 which he claims simply doesn't have laying around. So it seems that there is next to no hope of it getting a second life by being pitched to another network, but it doesn't seem likely that there was any way to even watch the full pilot...that was until April 25th, 2024, the pilot was anonymously posted online in a 4chan thread that was initially made just to spark a conversation about "Martin & Yolotzin".
